

Confidentiality and Conflict of Interest Policy

Policy Statement

The intent of this policy is to provide a clear understanding of the policies of The Alaska Community Foundation (the “Foundation”) concerning conflicts of interest and confidentiality.

Purpose and Scope

The purpose of this policy is to outline the responsibilities of members of the Board of Directors, advisory boards/committee members and employees of the Foundation, to maintain confidentiality and to recognize and disclose potential conflicts of interest and to provide for appropriate action if conflicts arise.

These policies apply to all members of the Board of Directors, advisory boards/committee members and employees of the Foundation. The online privacy policies herein apply to the aforementioned individuals as well as consumers, contributors and authors of content for the ACF website and social media platforms.

Confidentiality Policy

The Alaska Community Foundation (ACF) recognizes that the efficient operation of the Foundation requires the maintenance and management of extensive donor and prospect records. These records may contain sensitive information that has to be shared with or developed by the Foundation staff on a confidential basis. The Foundation, its staff and Board members, have an ethical and legal obligation to respect the privacy of our constituents, and to protect and maintain the confidentiality of all information and records about our constituents that we may learn or create in the course of providing services to them. Protecting donor confidentiality is an essential part of providing good service to the donors.

Additionally, care must be taken to preserve confidentiality of discussions that take place and information that is shared in the course of conducting Foundation business.

The purpose of this statement is to express the position of the Foundation on confidentiality.

Confidentiality of Records

The management staff shall be responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of donor and prospect records, as well as fund information. At the direction of management, staff may make all or part of any records available to Foundation Board members to assist them in executing their specific responsibilities. The Foundation's auditors, legal counsel and other contractors are authorized to review donor/prospect and fund records as required for the purposes for which they are engaged.

All persons accessing donor/prospect or fund records in the conduct of Foundation business shall maintain confidentiality of said records. This applies to agency endowments as well as to other types of funds. Staff may share information with donors, fund beneficiaries and grantees pertaining to their own gifts, funds, grants, etc.

Publication of Donor Names

Unless otherwise requested by the donor, the names of all individual donors may be printed in the Foundation's annual report and in other appropriate listings. The Foundation will not publish the amount of any donor's gift without the permission of the donor as expressed in the Donor Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in the document, donors making gifts to the Foundation by bequest or other testamentary device are deemed to have granted such permission.

Memorial/Tribute Gifts

The names of donors of memorial or tribute gifts may be released to the honoree, next of kin, or appropriate member of the immediate family, unless otherwise specified by the donors. Gift amounts are not to be released without the express consent of the donor.

Anonymous Gifts

The Foundation is authorized to accept anonymous gifts and to handle them appropriately. The name of the donor may be withheld from the Public if so requested by the donor. When made known to Board members they will respect the anonymity of any such gift. Under the following conditions, information regarding certain anonymous donations would be restricted to staff and an Officer of the Board:

1. The donor specifically requests the highest level of anonymity;
2. the gift is to the unrestricted fund or a field of interest fund (there can be NO donor advice);
3. the gift is cash or cash equivalent; and
4. the "acceptance committee" (the staff member and an Officer of the Board) present a finding to the Board that the donor is known to them and that the donation would otherwise meet all requirements of the gift acceptance policy.

No Disclosures to Third Parties

The Foundation shall not release to third parties or allow third parties to copy, inspect or otherwise use Foundation records or other information pertaining to the identification of a donor or donor's gifts. No disclosures to third parties of such information, including addresses and demographic information, shall be made without the donor's consent.

Confidentiality of Foundation Business

Discussions that take place in the context of the Foundation's operations require discretion, including discussions pertaining to grant making, personnel issues, development activities, operational fundraising, investment management, etc. The positions or statements of individual Board members, advisors, or staff should not be discussed outside of official Foundation meetings and processes. Likewise, the content of Foundation business, including documents or Foundation analysis or documents, should not be discussed or shared outside official meetings and processes.

Public Disclosure

The Foundation will comply with both the letter and spirit of all public disclosure requirements, including the open availability of its Form 990 tax returns. (Schedule B of Form 990, Donor Listing, will be properly redacted as provided by law to reflect confidentiality as provided by Internal Revenue Service Regulations). This Confidentiality Policy shall not be construed in any manner to prevent the Foundation from disclosing information to taxing authorities or other governmental agencies or courts having regulatory control or jurisdiction over the Foundation. However, all Board members, advisory board/committee members, employees, volunteers, contractors, or consultants must hold strictly confidential all information of a private nature, including but not limited to all items explicitly discussed in this policy.

Online Privacy

The Foundation will not distribute or sell any information voluntarily submitted on the Foundation's website. Online donations and transactions are processed through a secure server, using effective and appropriate safeguard measures to secure sensitive information. Once a secure donation is processed, the Foundation takes steps to ensure all personal, professional and/or financial information remains confidential and secure.

The Foundation assumes all rights to text, images, video, likeness and voice recordings ("media") submitted through The Alaska Community Foundation's online platforms, including social media, and those who submit such media agree that they have relinquished all related rights and copyright to such media and that the Foundation reserves the right to republish and produce new material created from submissions for the purpose of publicity, illustrations, advertisements and communications.

The Foundation reserves the right to publish photographs and/or videos submitted by participants in community projects, component funds and Affiliate Funds supported by the Foundation, including images, likeness, and/or voice recordings without personal compensation. This material is intended for communication purposes only and will not be used for other purposes.

In accordance with federal law and guidelines set up by the Federal Trade Commission regarding youth privacy, the Foundation will not knowingly collect any personal information from young people under the age of 13.

For young people under the age of 13, the Foundation will not release any voluntary data, photographs and/or video, images, and/or voice recordings without written consent from a child's guardian.

Conflict of Interest Policy

General

It is expected that all those associated with the Foundation shall exercise strict rules of honesty and fair dealing between themselves and the Foundation. They shall not use their positions within the Foundation, or knowledge gained thereof, so that any conflict might arise between the interest of the Foundation and that of the individual.

Applicable Law

Directors of a nonprofit corporation are required by law to be loyal to the corporation. Their fiduciary relationship includes the responsibility to administer its affairs honestly and economically, and to exercise their best care, skill and judgment for the sole benefit of the corporation. Proper transparency of activities, in the strictest sense of the law, requires Directors to declare a conflict of interest if one exists (or could be perceived from the personal and professional activities of the Director), abstain from participation in decision making when appropriate, and refrain from voting on issues where there is a conflict of interest. Necessary transparency and the spirit of the law covering conflict of interest applies to everyone in an advisory, decision making or close working relationship with the Foundation. Employees of the Foundation owe a duty of loyalty, and as a policy matter, must also avoid a conflict of interest with the Foundation.

Disclosure

It is the policy of the Foundation that all conflicts of interest, including potential interests, shall be disclosed. Members of the Board of Directors, advisory boards/committee member and employees of the Foundation should periodically review their vocational and avocational activities to determine and disclose any potential conflicts of interest. When in doubt, the rule is to disclose.

Directors and advisory boards/committee members shall refrain from voting upon or participating in any Board or advisory board/committee action involving an entity or personal activity with which they may have a conflict of interest. It is difficult to anticipate all circumstances where conflicts of interest may develop. By way of example, individual Board or advisory board/committee members are considered to have a conflict of interest when asked to vote on a grant to an organization with which they have a formal affiliation, when they are asked to vote on an issue in which an existing or potential financial material interest exists, or where the promise of a favor from other sources might be perceived to influence their decisions in a specific area.

Business Relationships

It is the Foundation's policy to endeavor to establish business relationships consistent with the goals, objectives, and needs of the organization. This does not prohibit the Foundation from doing business with anyone, including organizations or entities associated with members of its Board, advisory boards/committees, and employees. However, no special consideration will be given to those organizations or entities. Any contract or transaction between the Foundation and one or more of its Directors, or between the Foundation and any other corporation, firm, association, or entity in which one or more of its Directors has a substantial financial interest shall be entered into only after the material facts are fully disclosed to the Board and the transaction is approved by a majority of disinterested Directors, in accordance with non-profit law.

Employees

Employees shall avoid any conflicts of interest with the Foundation. No employee or family member of an employee shall have any interest in any entity which does business with the Foundation without the prior written approval of the President, after full disclosure. No employee shall hold any position with any nonprofit organization that is, or has applied to become, a grantee of the Foundation, or which may be reasonably considered to compete for funding with other nonprofits that are or may become grantees, without full disclosure and prior approval by the President.

Acknowledgment and Disclosure

Each individual, whether a member of the Board of Directors, advisory board/committee member or employees of the Foundation shall annually file a disclosure statement with the President & CEO and complete the Annual Federal Form 990 questionnaire with regard to disclosure of reportable relationships in accord with Internal Revenue Code requirements.

The disclosure shall include current positions or relationships in which they are involved or which may pose a potential conflict of interest, and shall further disclose any subsequently established relationship that may be perceived to be a potential conflict of interest. If the potential for conflict is uncertain, disclosure is required.

Policy Adoption, Review, and Revision History

Policy: Confidentiality and Conflict of Interest Policy

Date	Action taken	Comments
2013.08.14	Approved by ACF Board
2015.05.19	Approved by ACF Board

Next Bi-Annual Review Date: 2017.05

Personal Data

Name: _____

Current employer or other principal business affiliation: _____

ACF Role: _____

Other Business

Please disclose any other employment or financial interest which you or a member of your family (spouse/domestic partner, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren and their spouse/domestic partner) may have as either an ACF Board member, officer, employee or agent of any business organization, which might give a rise to a conflict of interest or duality of interest with The Alaska Community Foundation.

Please disclose if you have a family relationship or a business relationship with an ACF Board member, officer or key employee.

Charitable or Civic Involvement

Please disclose all official positions which you or any member of your family (spouse/domestic partner, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren and their spouse/domestic partner) may have as a Board member, trustee or officer of any charitable, civic or community organization as well as any unofficial roles might give rise to a conflict of interest or duality of interest between you and The Alaska Community Foundation.

I hereby acknowledge receipt of the Foundation's Confidentiality and Conflict of Interest Policies. If at any time there is a matter under consideration which may constitute a direct or indirect conflict of interest or duality of interest, it is my obligation to declare the conflict, to abstain from voting and to refrain from using my personal influence on the matter. It is also my obligation to keep Foundation business confidential and to honor donor confidentiality.

As a member of the Board of Directors, advisory board/committee member or employee of the Foundation, I hereby agree to abide by the above policies.

Signature _____ Date _____